DR. JONATHAN JONES, D.MIN

Dr. Jones has enjoyed a six year history with Madison Academy where he has served as Campus Minister and Bible Chair. He lives in Huntsville with Kristen, his wife of ten years, and their two boys Canaan and Jonah.

Jon has been counseling pastorally for 15 years. He's received multiple Bachelors and Masters degrees from Pepperdine University and holds his doctorate from Dallas Theological Seminary in Pastoral Counseling. He excels in helping families navigate the hurdles of adolescence and seeks to bridge the gap between teens and their parents, offering a fluency in the language and culture of both.

He also has professional training in helping individuals and couples with dating, marriage relationships and sexual issues. His passion lies in being a resource for adolescent faith development as well as an advocate for positive marriages and families in Madison County.

CENTER FOR FAMILY COUNSELING

Madison Academy's new Center for Family Counseling is an innovative resource for MA's families and friends. Our goal is to help students, adults, and individuals strengthen and rebuild relationships among family members, between peers and to grow in their relationship with God.

Introducing The Center For Family Counseling

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING:

"Our marriage was over, and we met with Jon as a last ditch effort. We needed someone who knew the Bible and who would help us work through difficult issues. He was the perfect fit." - Madison Couple

"Dr. Jones knows so much about me, and he still doesn't judge me. He's helped me grow closer to God and my family."

- Boy, 18 yrs.

"He actually listens to me and know how to encourage and coach me in issues with my parents."

- Girl, 17 yrs.

"Jon's not perfect, but he let God use his failures to minister to me in my time of crisis. He helped me to see that God still loves me and is helping me find victory over this addiction." - Young Adult

"I needed Christian counseling to resolve a relationship and some personal issues in my life. I am extremely, happy to say John did both in God!"

- 55 yr. old woman

"Help like this is so hard to find. I am so thankful for Jon and his Christ-like compassion. He has made a huge difference in the life of my son."

- MA Parent

COMPETENCE

Dr. Jones employs sound biblical counseling informed by current psychological research. This powerful combination in conjunction with his use of healing prayer allows for the Holy Spirit to accomplish deep healing and transformation in your life.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The CFC operates as a family support ministry for Madison Academy families and friends. We observe extreme measures of confidentiality and are not required to report your use of our services. We respect your need for privacy.

CONVENIENCE

We have access to campus facilities for counseling sessions after normal school hours, but we also have a full range of internet based counseling options like Skype and iChat as well as phone counseling should you prefer to talk in the comfort of your own home.

COACHING

The strength of the Center is its' ability to come alongside you in your time of need, and remain with you through the duration of your healing, offering accountability, prayer, encouragement and counsel.

COMPASSION

Our efforts to help you are rooted in christian compassion. We know the pain and discouragement that surrounds the hurting. We strive for understanding and empathy, with spiritual direction. We're simply here to help.
