

National Junior Honor Society Application Packet

Madison Academy Chapter

Election to membership in the National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) represents the highest honor and trust that can be bestowed upon a student. National Junior Honor Society recognizes students for outstanding SCHOLARSHIP, LEADERSHIP, SERVICE, and CHARACTER.

Membership in the society is indicative that the student has attained and is demonstrating and promoting all of these qualities and is exerting an effort to improve conditions in our school and community.

Membership Eligibility

1. The student may be a member of the 7th, 8th, or 9th grade class.
2. The student must have been in attendance at Madison Academy for one semester prior to applying.
3. New students who transfer to Madison Academy who are already members of NJHS will be added to our NJHS roll but will be expected to immediately demonstrate the qualities of an NJHS member or he/she may be dismissed from membership.
4. A student must have earned a 90% cumulative average in the five core subjects during the previous semester and maintain this average over the course of membership.
5. A student may not have any major discipline infractions (e.g., cheating, stealing, plagiarism, etc.) to be considered for NJHS.
6. A student with minor discipline infractions (see student/parent handbook for examples) will be allowed to apply, but the discipline infractions will be weighed in the student's application for membership.

Selection Process

1. Students who are academically eligible and who have no major discipline infractions in their record will be notified by the faculty advisor of their eligibility to apply. Eligibility to apply in no way guarantees membership in NJHS.
2. Eligible students will request an application from the faculty advisor, will complete the application, and will submit all materials and supporting information to the Faculty Advisor by the announced deadline. Incomplete or late applications will not be considered (see NJHS Checklist for Application, NJHS Application, and NJHS Personal Assessment Essay).
3. Teachers who are current classroom teachers and who have taught the student in the previous year will complete an evaluation that will become part of the student's profile. Evaluation forms will be given only to teachers who are qualified to assess the student
4. The student's application with all supporting documents, essay, teacher evaluations, and discipline record (if applicable) will all be carefully considered by the faculty council, the members of which will be appointed by the principal. The faculty advisor will not be a voting member of the council nor privy to council discussions. Student applications and teacher evaluations will be numbered by the faculty advisor so that the faculty council is voting solely on the information presented by the student him/herself and his/her teachers; thus, all applications will be anonymous to the faculty council. Students must secure a majority of the faculty council vote to be nominated for membership.
5. The faculty advisor will review the selection results with the principal before notifying any candidates. All student profiles and teacher evaluations will remain confidential to protect the integrity of the process and the relationship between the student and his/her teachers.

National Junior Honor Society Personal Assessment Essay

To be completed and submitted with your application for membership to the Madison Academy chapter of NJHS

While interested in your academic and community achievements, the National Junior Honor Society is also interested in your attitude towards what it holds most important - namely scholarship, leadership, character, and service. How do you view your schoolwork, and what is your attitude towards doing it? Does your attendance and interest in learning reflect scholarship? Do you want to influence others, and do you try? What aspirations for leadership do you have? What do you see as your strong points of character; what character traits are you working to develop? Service is a daily opportunity on a small and a grand scale; what is your attitude toward serving others?

Please write a long paragraph in which you assess your present attitudes in these areas and state your goals for growing in them.
